

Lanarkshire Police Open Day

POLICE
SCOTLAND

Motherwell Police Office
Saturday 29th August 2015
12:00 - 16:00

Following the success of our last open day to celebrate the forming of Police Scotland in 2013, we are delighted to open our doors once again at Motherwell Police Office, Lanarkshire Divisional Headquarters.

The Police Service continues to support its communities in the way we always have, by listening to the people we serve. Come along to our open day and speak to Officers about the various departments the Police have to offer and if you are interested in joining, our recruitment team will be on hand to offer advice. Come along and grab the chance to see old police memorabilia! Uniforms and equipment will be on display, courtesy of the Lanarkshire Police Historical Society and a chance to meet your Community Police Officer.

The Scottish Fire Service will be in attendance to give advice and guidance in relation to fire safety and will have chip pan fire demos throughout the day. You can listen to live community bands playing as you walk around a selection of Police vehicles and the cell holding area. We will have fun for the family with plenty of things to see and do such as the climbing wall, soccer arena, sumo suits and much more.
